

P05413.069

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P05413.069

Image copyright: Copyright expired - public domain,

 PUBLIC DOMAIN This image is in the Public Domain

ID number	P05413.069
Collection	Photograph
Object type	Black & white - Photomechanical print
Photographer	Unknown
Date made	1916
Description

P08450.001

2356

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P08450.001

Image copyright: Copyright expired - public domain,

 This image is in the Public Domain

ID number	P08450.001
Collection	Photograph
Object type	Black & white - Print silver gelatin
Photographer	Unknown
Place made	United Kingdom: England, Wiltshire, Salisbury Plain
Date made	1917

Description

Group portrait of members of the 36th Battalion in a training camp, probably on the Salisbury Plain in England. 2366 Private (Pte) Claude Eugene Nancarrow, 36th Battalion, is thought to be in this group. Pte Nancarrow, a 35 year old married labourer from Ourimbah, NSW, enlisted on 11 May 1916. His unit embarked from Sydney aboard HMAT Borda (A30) on 17 October 1916 and he was killed in action at Passchendaele, near Ypres, Belgium on 12 October 1917. A message on the reverse of the print reads " To Ernie, Jack and Iris from Daddy", daddy being Pte Nancarrow..

Same date as Robert Noble

AUSTRALIAN WAR MEMORIAL

P08450.002

Image copyright: Copyright expired - public domain,

 This image is in the Public Domain

ID number	P08450.002
Collection	Photograph
Object type	Black & white - Print silver gelatin
Photographer	The Galloway Studios
Place made	Australia: New South Wales
Date made	3 September 1916 - Robert Noble left 25/11/1916

Description

Reinforcements for the 9th Brigade AIF, comprising men bound for the 33rd, 34th, 35th and 36th Battalions, marching out of their training camp for embarkation at Sydney. They are led by an army band, a padre and mounted officers. One man is carrying a battalion or reinforcement flag and the column is accompanied by friends and relatives walking with them.